PRICE INCREASES

We need to advise you that due to continued increases in the price of steel, transport etc, we have been forced to review prices for most of our product line. Steel rod prices have had increases by over 100%, in the past 12 months and while we appreciate that the current climate is difficult we can no longer absorb the increases that we are receiving from suppliers. I have pasted some of these overleaf. We are therefore respectfully advising you that as of September 1st 2008 we will be applying various price increases across the board. Please contact your rep for details. Note: on all Special Price Lists submitted by our representatives we have kept this to 5% on most products across the board. Please also note that further increases over the next few months cannot be ruled out.
